

Kenmore Centerfire Benchrest Match Rules

2/19/2022: Approved

I. Preamble:

The goal of the Kenmore Centerfire Benchrest Match is to provide a safe and fun environment that will challenge the experienced Competitor, engage the new Competitor to help them improve their skills, and grow the sport of Benchrest Centerfire shooting.

II. Match Overview:

1. The Match is a Centerfire Benchrest competition for scoped centerfire rifles using the International Benchrest Shooters (I.B.S.) target at distances of 100, 200, or 300 yards.
2. Competitors will compete in either the Expert or Sharpshooter rifle divisions.
3. The Match will be held on the third Saturday of each month, but this can change due to schedule conflicts with other events. Check the Kenmore Range calendar for date changes.
4. Club membership is not required to participate.
5. If you are interested in participating in the Match please contact the Match Director – Matt Daly matt5404@frontier.com

III. Match Operational Details:

1. Four I.B.S. targets consisting of five (5) bulls with two shots for record on each bull plus one sighter target for unlimited sighters in a 13-minute time period. There will also be a ten-minute sight in period on the first target sighter prior to shooting targets for record.
2. It is highly recommended that a competitor's rifle be pre-sighted in at 100 yards. The competitor may hang a target at the 100-yard line if they want to confirm their zero during the ten-minute sight in period.
3. A safety briefing will be conducted prior to the beginning of the match as outlined in Attachment B.
4. Ten points are awarded for hitting the inner edge or within the center target ring, and then a descending number of points in each of the five outer rings using the inner ring scoring method. An additional point will be awarded for touching or eliminating the dead center of the target bull.
5. If a competitor shoots a single bull three times or more, than the lowest two shots values will be counted for score.
6. If a competitor determines that they or another Competitor has accidentally shot the wrong target they should immediately inform the Match Director. The identified shots will be disregarded for scoring purposes with no penalty to the competitor who cross fired.
7. Competitors may place their own wind flags down range prior to the beginning of the match.
8. The competition targets will be scored by two designated match scoring judges. Magnifying glasses and scoring gauges will be used in scoring the targets.
9. After the last relay targets have been scored, the competitors may challenge the scores of any their targets prior to determination of the match winners.
10. No talking is allowed inside of the Range 1 building only while a relay is in progress.
11. After the Match is completed, the Match Director will give instructions to case rifles, remove their equipment from the range and clean up the firing lining as necessary.
12. Competitors will help setup the range for the Match targets and then restore the range to its standard configuration after the match.

13. All Competitors must sign a waiver indicating they agree to allow usage of their name in written communications about the Match. This will include, but not be limited to: the Match summary published in the Range Newsletter, the monthly Match scores posted on the Range Website, and any detail summaries of the Match sent out to the Competitors. Competitors will be given the option of using a two (2) letter alias instead of their names. First time Competitors will be asked to sign the waiver after shooting their first Match.
14. Competitors who wish to take videos or photos of other competitors or their personal equipment must obtain prior approval from the individual first.

IV. Match Safety Details:

1. Kenmore Range Safety rules will apply to this Match. <https://www.wcwshootingsports.org/rifle-range-rules/>

VI. Divisions:

1. Competitors will be divided into two Divisions: Expert and Sharpshooter.
 - a. The Expert Division will consist of competitors with shooting skills capable of shooting scores of 396 or better.
 - b. The Sharpshooter Division will consist of competitors who do not post scores up to the 396 scoring threshold.
2. Competitors who post three consecutive scores of 396 or higher will be promoted to the Expert Division.
3. The Match Director shall make the initial decision on Division placement of all new Competitors based upon an assessment of their shooting skills.

VII. Entry Fee & Prize Money:

1. The entry fee is ten dollars ($10). Two dollars ($2) pays for the targets, and the remaining eight dollars ($8) is returned in prize money to the Competitors.
2. Prize money will be awarded for the cumulative score of the four targets and distributed based upon the number of competitors in each division according to the payout schedule in Attachment A.
3. Any errors in calculating the score of a target found after the prize money is awarded will not change the prize money distribution nor official scores.
4. If there is only a single Competitor in a Division, then they will be charged only the two dollars ($2) target fee when applicable.

VIII. Season Championship

1. The Season Championship will consist of monthly Matches starting in January continuing throughout the calendar year excluding the Frombach and Seibert matches for point purposes.
2. To be eligible for the Season Championship, a competitor must compete in a minimum of seven of the ten regular season matches with the aggregate total of the top seven scores determining the two Division Championships. The tie breakers will be number of matches won followed by number of second place finishes.
3. Competitors with the top score in each Division will have their name engraved on their division's championship trophy.

IX. Rules Update and Dispute Resolution:

1. A three member Rules Committee will be established to periodically review and update the Kenmore Centerfire Benchrest Match rules, support resolution of issues or disputes raised by the Competitors.
2. The committee shall consist of the Match Director and two Competitors who are currently competing in the Kenmore Centerfire Benchrest Match, and shall meet the following criteria:
 - a. Members of the Kenmore Range.
 - b. Participated in a minimum of six Kenmore Centerfire Benchrest Matches.
3. Process for selecting the two Rules Committee Members is as follows:
 - a. They will be selected by a vote of all the Competitors attending the December Kenmore Centerfire Benchrest Match.
 - b. They will serve a two-year term on the Rules Committee with no limits on consecutive or total number of terms that can be served.
 - c. In order to stagger the terms of the elected Rules Committee members such that a new member is elected every year the following process will be used for the initial election of the two Rules Committee members.
 - i. The member receiving the highest number of votes will have an initial two-year term.
 - ii. The member receiving the second highest number of votes will have an initial one-year term.

- d. In case of a tie, then a runoff election of just the tied candidates will be held.
 - e. Range members may self-nominate themselves for the Rules Committee Positions.
 - f. The Match Director is responsible for facilitating a request for candidates, running the election, and reporting the results.
 - g. If a Rules Committee member steps down, or stops shooting in the Match, the Match Director will hold a special election to vote on a new Rules Committee member to fill the remaining term of the individual who has left.
4. Suggestions or ideas for improvements to the Kenmore Centerfire Benchrest Match Rules shall be submitted in writing to the Match Director.
 5. The following process shall be followed for revising the rules set forth herein:
 - a. The Match Director shall review all proposed rule changes with the Rules Committee for consideration which shall be submitted in writing to the Match Director.
 - b. A formal response on the status of the proposed rule change after review by the Rules Committee shall be provided to the individual who made the submittal.
 - c. Any revisions to the Kenmore Centerfire Benchrest Match Rules being considered by the Rules Committee shall first be sent to all Competitors for review and comment. The comment period shall be set by the Rules Committee and will last at least seven (7) to a maximum of thirty (30) days in duration.
 - d. After the comment period is closed, the Rules Committee shall evaluate the comments and make changes as appropriate. If any one of the three committee members feel the changes are substantial in nature, and require an additional review by the Competitors, then the revised wording for the proposed rules update will be sent out for comment per paragraph c. above.
 - e. Upon finalization of the wording for the proposed update to the rules, the Rules Committee may:
 - i. Incorporate the rule update directly into the rules based upon agreement of all three Rules Committee members which is typically for minor type changes.
 - ii. If any one of the Rule Committee members believes that a vote of the Competitors is required, then a vote will be held at the next monthly Match on the proposed rule change, which will be sent to the Competitors in advance of the Match. The vote will be by secret ballot and will require a greater than 50% acceptance of all votes cast. The Match Director will be responsible for communicating the proposed rule change and running the vote of the Competitors.
 6. The Match Director's final ruling made the day of the Match shall stand.
 7. Any disputes related to clarification or interpretation of the rules shall be submitted in writing to the Match Director who shall review it with the Rules Committee. A formal response to the individual who made the submittal shall be provided.
 8. If the Rules Committee cannot reach a consensus on any item under discussion, whether it be a rule related issue, or the resolution of a dispute, then a two to one majority will be used for making a decision, unless otherwise defined within the Kenmore Centerfire Benchrest Match rules.
 9. If a dispute involves a Rules Committee member, then a temporary member will be selected to participate in the review and resolution of the dispute.
 - a. The temporary member shall be a current Competitor.
 - b. A willing temporary member will be selected by a majority vote the Rules Committee.
