

Wildlife Committee of Washington

New Member Orientation Rules and Policy

Revised February 8, 2024

The Club

The Wildlife Committee of Washington (WCW) is a non-profit sportsman's club incorporated in 1945. It is non-partisan and non-sectarian. Membership is open to any citizen of good character with a desire to promote wildlife conservation and the hunting, fishing, and shooting sports.

The WCW has owned and operated the Wildlife Committee of Washington Shooting Range for the benefit of its membership and the local community since 1953. All dues, fees and operating profits received by the WCW are used to maintain and improve its facilities and to promote the club's basic goals. The WCW is self-supporting and debt free.

The club as a whole meets quarterly on the second Wednesday of January, April, July, and October at 7:30PM in the Clubhouse. The April meeting is the Club's Annual Meeting. The business of this Annual Meeting includes counting the ballots for the election of members of the Board of Directors, and approval of the budget for the next fiscal year.

The Club produces a monthly club newsletter. The newsletter has been the club's primary method of informing the membership of items of interest, policy changes and up-coming meetings, classes and events. We post it on our web site and place hard copies in the Range and Shotgun offices.

We have a web site address, with club information:

<http://www.wcwshootingsports.org>

The web site, is large and growing, has descriptions and photos of the club's facilities and activities. It has maps and driving instructions, match schedules, newsletters, event calendars, club policy, and range rules. It also has a membership renewal dues form, a printable new member application form, a member's section with other important forms available for printing. There is also the ability to fill out a new member application form or dues renewal forms and pay the fees on-line <http://www.wcwshootingsports.org/new-membership/> . Members are encouraged to read the newsletter on line (or print it out). Notification of each new newsletter posting can be received by email by signing up at <https://www.shootingsports.org/newletter/> The newsletter is always posted by the 1st day of the month.

Management

A 12 member Board of Directors consisting of six Executive Officers, five Trustees and the immediate Past President manages the WCW. The Board is responsible for managing the facility and the club's business operations, providing the administrative services for the membership, handling the finances, setting policy, and managing the employees.

The Officers and Trustees are non-compensated members who have volunteered their time to work on the club's behalf. The most Board members stand for election every year (there are a couple of two year positions). Any member in good standing and desiring to serve may submit their name (in January/February) to the Board for nomination. Ballots are mailed out the last week of March and are counted at the April annual meeting.

The President is the "CEO", chairs the General and Board meetings, insures that all aspects of the club work effectively, and enforces all club rules and policies. The Board of Trustees, a subsection of the Board, is responsible for controlling the physical assets of the club and insuring that the authorized committees operate effectively.

The club has general business meetings of the membership in Jan, Apr, Jul and Oct, held in the Clubhouse at 7:30PM. The April meeting is the “Annual” meeting. This is the start of the club’s financial fiscal year and at this meeting the Board presents a budget for the up-coming fiscal year for approval by the membership. The approved budget sets the financial parameters for the Board and authorizes the year’s spending and projects.

The Board of Directors meets in the first half of every month. The schedule is published annually. Changes to the published schedule will be announced at least 30 days in advance of the published meeting date. The business portion of the Board meeting is conducted in closed session, however any member may address the Board before it goes into executive session and present any views which may be of benefit or interest to the club. Occasionally the Board may invite committee chairmen to stay through the executive session.

Committees

The WCW is organized into Committees which are responsible for the approved club activities. The Archery, Handgun, Rifle, and Shotgun committees each perform maintenance and improvement projects on their respective ranges, under Board approval and supervision, and organize and hold approved events. They offer recommendations to the Board on safety, improvements, maintenance, operation, and activities in their respective areas.

Each committee has a chairman, elected by the committee and approved by the Board, to chair the meetings, make reports, and act for the committee on any item needing immediate attention.

The Archery Committee, the Handgun Committee, the Rifle Committee, and the Shotgun Committee meets once a month as scheduled on the on-line Club Calendar. Please refer often to the Club Calendar (<http://www.wcwshootingsports.org/calendar-rgp/>) to find out what is happening around the facility and to make sure the facility you want to use is not occupied.

The Big Game and Fishing Committees host social events and organize outings. The Legislative Committee coordinates our involvement with other political action groups who are concerned with hunting, fishing and firearm legislation, and they keep the general membership informed on proposed legislation.

The above mentioned committees are all open to any member with an interest in the area and a willingness to attend meetings. A member can become involved with as many committees as their time and interest permits.

The Firearms Education Committee is open only to NRA certified instructors. Members interested in becoming a certified instructor should contact the committee’s chairman. The committee holds NRA certified classes to meet the demand in the community. Home Firearms Safety classes, Basis Rifle and Pistol classes, and beginning Shotgun Clinics are held every month.

The Hunter Education Committee is open only to State certified Hunter Education instructors. Members interested in becoming a certified instructor should contact the committee’s chairman.

Youth Groups

We have several youth groups. The Youth Rifle Group shoots weekly during the school year and receives instruction in four position rifle. They may go on several field trips each year to attend matches around the Puget Sound area and spend time working through the NRA junior Olympic qualification courses.

The Youth Archery Group has a JOAD charter and is one of the best in the nation. Our instructors and coaches are nationally recognized. The group participates competitively in national and international matches. The group meets Monday and Friday from 5pm to 7pm throughout the year.

The Youth Shotgun Group is active in the Winter/Spring months.

Member Responsibilities

While we have employees whose primary responsibility is to supervise the safe use of our facility, range safety is the responsibility of each and every member of the club. If a member does not take immediate action when seeing a safety violation or a hazardous situation, he will be disciplined by the controlling committee or the Board. Children on the grounds demand extra diligence on the part of the members to insure their safety and well-being. Remember you are responsible for everything you see and we expect you to keep your eyes open and to take appropriate and immediate action when necessary.

The condition of the facility is also the responsibility of each and every member. Anything needing repair or correction should be reported to the Rangemaster or to a club officer. Trash should be attended to immediately. Pick it up!

Alcohol is not permitted on the club grounds for any reason whatsoever. It is the responsibility of each and every member to prevent the use of alcohol anywhere on the property by members and non-members alike. Ask any violator to immediately leave the property and report the incident to the Rangemaster or a club officer.

All members are required to wear their membership cards while they are on the facility. The card should be displayed as to be plainly visible so there is no doubt as to a member's status. This is your individual responsibility..... it is not the Rangemaster's job to keep track of the status of your membership. No card, no membership benefits.

Work party participation by every member is encouraged. Work parties will generally be scheduled in the newsletter for club wide projects. Committee initiated projects will be discussed at the committee meetings and may be mentioned in the newsletter. The Board will occasionally call for volunteers with special talents.

The Business and Rangemaster Authority

The WCW operates a public shooting facility and a retail business operation to support the other club goals and activities. The club employees are responsible for the business operations and report directly to the Board. The employees have been delegated the authority to control all activities on club property, including the temporary closing of a range for maintenance or safety, and temporary suspension of member privileges for cause.

The club maintains a retail product inventory, which includes ammunition, targets, loading components, shooting accessories, and firearm cleaning supplies. Club members receive a 15% discount over the already competitive retail prices.

The club can usually obtain a wide variety of items not normally carried in inventory. We require pre-payment for high value special order items and the final cost to the member is our wholesale cost plus 10%, plus shipping and sales tax.

To be in the retail business the club is required to maintain an FFL. We do not allow use of the club's FFL by members. We have chosen not to sell or transfer firearms and we leave those transactions to our members who are in that business, which includes almost all the gun shops in our geographic area.

Dues and Assessments

The club is on an annual basis for its membership dues ... everyone's dues are due on the anniversary of their joining date. The initiation fees and annual dues are set by the Board. They tend to remain constant for many years. Current dues can be found on the on-line posted renewal forms.

The club has a provision for assessments, however it has never been used. The WCW has also remained debt free after paying off the purchase of our land. The WCW has been extremely successful in maintaining a strong financial position, operating at a profit, and managing its affairs to avoid emergencies.

Special Use Permits

Any range activity not normally permitted to a public shooter or a regular member requires a “special use permit”. This includes the use of the facilities that are not open to the public, such as Range #1 (the 300yd range) or the Archery Olympic (FITA) range. Those members who have obtained special use permission have an imprint on their card to visually indicate the type of special activity approved. The details of the permissions are printed on the back of their card. Members engaging in activities without having the permission on their card will lose either their ranges privileges or their membership.

To obtain a special use permit a member must attend the committee’s Safety/Special Use Presentation. The member will then need to attend a range session for rifle and pistol special use. Special Use may then be requested and approved by the committee.

The purpose of the process is to help insure that those members who are using club facilities under their own supervision are well versed in all the rules, have an adequate skill level, and understand their responsibility for the safe operation of our ranges. These classes are posted on the club calendar.

Policy

The Board of Directors is responsible to decide what matters are matters of policy and to establish those rules that make up club policy. Club policy includes this entire document including the Archery, Rifle, Pistol, and Shotgun policy and safety rules.

Facilities

The Wildlife Committee of Washington Shooting Range is an 80 acre facility owned and operated by the Wildlife Committee of Washington, a non-profit sportsman’s club. Most of the shooting disciplines are uniquely combined at this one location, from high-power rifle and pistol to Olympic style target archery. Although some of the facility’s ranges are reserved for members and sanctioned matches, much of the facility is open daily to the general public and available to military and law enforcement units on request.

The WCW maintains strict adherence to our maximum 9AM to 9PM outdoor shooting hours (7PM for highpower rifle). The end of the open shooting day varies during the year with the changes in available daylight. All open rifle and pistol shooting ends with the closing of the Range Office as does all public archery. The facility is closed 3 days a year, Christmas Day, New Year’s Day, and Thanksgiving Day.

Wildlife Committee of Washington Shooting Range

The club maintains the following ranges:

Range #1: A multi-purpose high-power rifle range reserved for members with special use permits and matches. With a covered all weather firing line, it is fully safetied from 50 yds out to 300 yards. There are 18 cement shooting benches suitable for benchrest matches.

Range #2: A multi-purpose high-power rifle range open to members and the public. With a covered all weather firing line, it is fully safetied from 50 yds to 100 yards. There are 20 shooting benches with rests and spotting scopes installed on the line.

Range #3: A fully safetied 7, 15, 25 and 50 yard pistol range open to qualified members and 4 days a week to the general membership and the public (for public hours consult our web site). It has a covered all weather firing line with 28 firing points and spotting scopes. There is a built in ransom rest for member use. The range has a turning target 25 yard line and both bullseye and international matches are held. The range has lights and many evening matches are held.

Range #4: Currently under construction. When complete, this range will be restricted to members with permission, classes, and matches.

Indoor Range: Multi-purpose range accommodating archery at 60 ft, small bore (.22 LR) rifle and small bore (.22LR) pistol at 50 ft and air gun at 33 ft. This range is reserved for matches and organized activities.

Archery Flat Range: Multi-distant hunting archery sight-in range with animal targets at distances from 10 to 80 yards and two broadhead pits. Open to members and the general public daily. The range has lights and members can obtain permission to shoot in the evening hours.

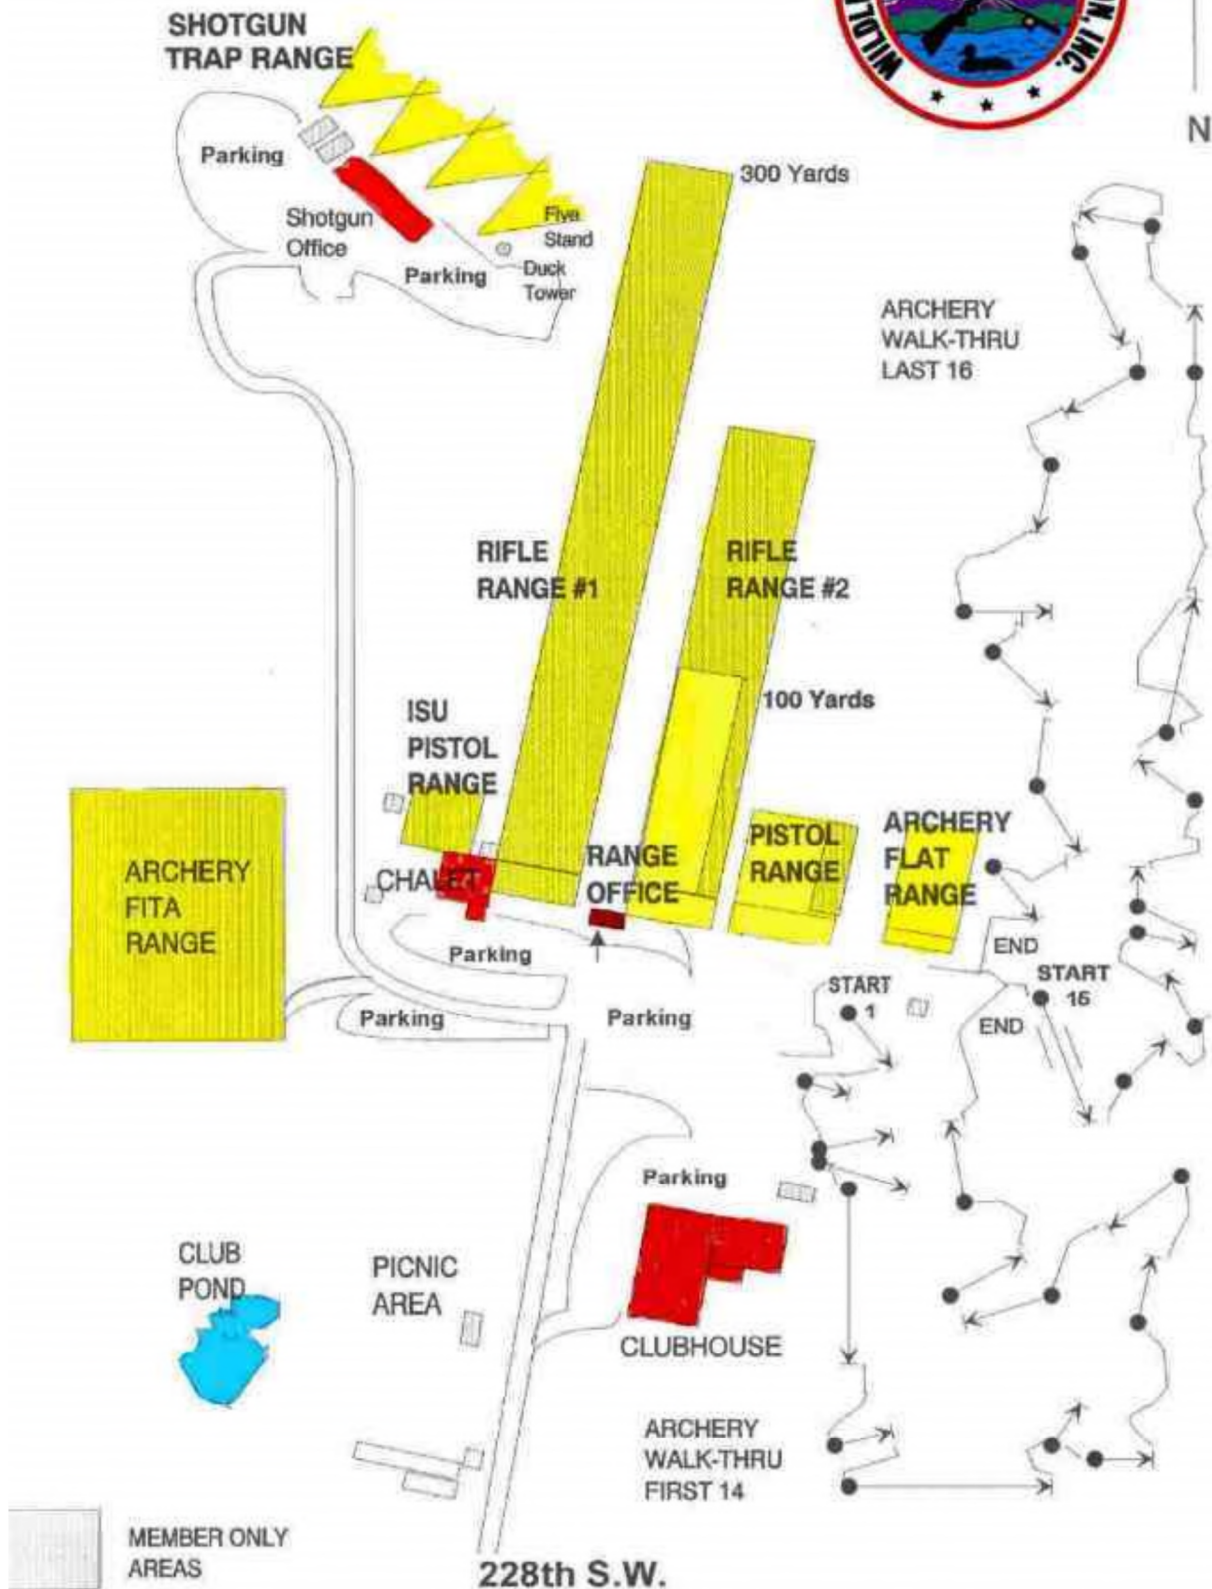

Archery Field or Walk-thru Range: 50+ targets encountered in a natural setting by means of sequential shooting lanes. Open to members and the general public daily.

Archery Olympic Target Range (FITA): A 100 meter range for Olympic style archery. Reserved for matches and members with special use permits. One of the few dedicated ranges of this type in the country.

Trap Range: The shotgun facility has 5 trap fields which are open to members and the general public five days a week. American and International trap are thrown as well as doubles and continental.

Five Stand: The shotgun facility has a five stand in operation with a 65 ft duck tower, running rabbit, springing teal and 9 other traps for a large variety of shooting situations. This is a simulation of hunting situations and is essentially a static sporting clay setup. Singles, following pairs, report pairs and true doubles may be thrown during the 25 bird experience.

Saturday – Sunday	9AM to dusk/7PM

All open shooting will terminate before the departure of the rangemaster irrespective of the time, since he locks the gate on his way out.

Club Members

Members have no additional shooting privileges beyond the supervised public shooters except as specifically granted by the Archery Committee on a case by case basis. All Club members are required to wear their membership cards in plain sight. All Club members are required to sign-in on the sign-in sheets at each of the ranges they use.

Public Shooters

Public shooters may shoot on the Flat Range and/or the Walk-thru Range during the posted public shooting hours for a fee set by the Board of Directors.

Handicapped Shooters

Members will accord every courtesy and assistance to handicapped shooters using our facility. Our ranges are open to handicapped shooters within the bounds of safety, which will be the overriding consideration.

The non-member will pay a standard day-use fee for the use of the facilities, and complete the standard range waiver. The member without special use in this case does not pay any fee and is not required to complete a waiver. The non-member, or member without special use, will be given a wrist band with the member's WCW number on it. Members will sign out their guests at the office when they leave the range. On ranges with benches or fixed firing positions, the member and the non-member will use the same bench or position, with only one at a time shooting. At any time, the Rangemaster or a range official may inspect any equipment on the ranges, and may order any equipment off the ranges which they, in their sole judgement, consider to be inappropriate or in an unsafe condition.
