The objective is to have Competitors in each Division posting scores that are competitive within their Division to encourage, and foster skill development by giving everyone a realistic opportunity to be competitive.
2. If a Competitor begins posting scores that are consistent with those in the next higher Division, then the Match Director will evaluate promoting them to the next Division based upon the following:

If after their first Match, a new Competitor scores significantly higher than the other Competitors in their assigned Division and impacts the ability of the other Competitors in that Division from having a realistic opportunity to be competitive; or shoots significantly lower than the other Competitors in the assigned Division and does not have the ability to be competitive in that Division; then the Match Director in coordination with the Rules Committee will agree upon which Division the Competitor will shoot in at their next Match. If the Competitor does not want to move to a new Division at their next Match, then they can request the option of paying the $2 target fee and shooting for score only, and not for prize money, in their current Division at their next Match. After the second Match is shot, the Match Director and Rules Committee will reconvene to evaluate the Competitors assignment to a Division.
4. If a Competitor changes their rifle, they shall notify the Match Director who will assess the possibility of changing a Competitor's Division assignment for their next Match.
 - a. Upon an initial assessment of the equipment change made by a Competitor, the Match Director will decide whether the Competitor should move to a new Division for their next Match.
 - b. If the Competitor disagrees with the Match Director's assessment, they may appeal the decision to the Rules Committee under Item 7 of this Article before their next Match.

- c. After shooting a Match with their new equipment, a Competitor scores significantly higher than the other Competitors in their assigned Division and impacts the ability of the other Competitors in that Division from having a realistic opportunity to be competitive; or scores significantly lower than the other Competitors in the Division and does not have the ability to be competitive in that Division; then the Match Director in coordination with the Rules Committee will agree upon which Division the Competitor will shoot in at their next Match. If the Competitor does not want to move to a new Division after their first Match with their new Equipment, they can request the option of paying the $2 target fee and shooting for score only, and not for prize money, in their current Division at their next Match. After shooting this second Match with their new equipment, the Match Director and Rules Committee will reconvene to evaluate the Competitors assignment to a Division.
5. A Competitor may request that they be placed in a Division higher than their scoring average would have otherwise placed them.

9. At the conclusion of each season, the Rules Committee will evaluate the Division assignments of all Competitors to ensure they are competing in a Division where they have a realistic opportunity to be competitive. If a potentially incorrect Division assignment is identified, the Rules Committee will work with the Competitor to ensure that they are appropriately assigned to a Division for the upcoming season that they feel they belong in and can be competitive.

VII. Entry Fee & Prize Money:

1. The entry fee is ten dollars ($10). Two dollars ($2) pays for the targets, and the remaining eight dollars ($8) is returned in prize money to the Competitors.

6. The targets shall be labeled #1 and #2, and shall be hung with the number #1 target on the left, and shall be shot first. If a Competitor shoots their target in the wrong order, they shall bring this to the attention of the Match Director.

2. To be eligible for the Season Championship a Competitor must shoot a minimum of 16 targets. The 16 highest scored targets from each of the Competitors will be used to decide the Season Champions. 3. The Competitors with the top three highest total scores for the season will have their name, score, and rifle make added to the Championship plaque. The total X count of the top 16 scores will be used for the purposes of a tie breaker.

Scoring the USBR Target #1

Revised

Easy Shots To Score

No need to use a scoring gauge on these shots. None of them are close to the edge of the ring of next higher value.

Targets are twice normal size for clarity

IREM Scoring Rules

1. It is recommended that everyone download this two page scoring graphic and print it out for reference.

2. Each person who scores targets must understand correct scoring with the scoring gauge. The gauge should be held by the handle when being pushed into the shot hole. The value of a shot should be determined before the scoring gauge is removed. If it is difficult to determine the value of a shot: (Old shooter - weak eyes) Use a magnifying glass.

3. You may score your own targets or have another person score them. They should be checked for mistakes. When you post your scores on RFC: At the end of your report indicate "Self Scored", or "Scored by: _____".

4. NEW shooters who are not sure of how to score, or do not yet have a scoring gauge, they may mail target(s) to their team captain, or to Joe Haller for scoring: Targets should be mailed at least 10 days before the end of the month.

Scoring 10s and 10xs using the scoring gauge

If you see any green of the 10-ring peeking out from under the edge of the gauge, it is not a 10x.

The gauge covers all of the green ten ring on these these 3 targets. They all score a 10-x.

These are close shots

These shots are close to a scoring ring. Which ones touch the ring of higher value? You cannot be sure until you plug the shot with a scoring gauge. The holes could measure anywhere from .214" to .219", depending on bullet shape, lubricant, paper type and moisture in the paper. The .22 caliber scoring gauge measures .224". Shots that may look "out" could be "in".
